FOUNDATION

THE People's FLAG

Only
€0.50
per copy

The Irish Independent, in partnership with the Thomas F Meagher Foundation will once again publish The People's Flag, this March 8th.

We are delighted this supplement will include lesson plans compiled by the History Teachers Association which can be used in your class as teaching resources. Also see details on the new partnership between the Thomas F. Meagher Foundation and Gaisce and how schools can combine their Flag Day Activities with Gaisce both to earn your Gaisce Awards. (Presidents Award)

First flown by Thomas Francis Meagher in Waterford in 1848, the flag is an iconic symbol that generates worldwide respect..

On March 8th, this special supplement will celebrate the work of the Foundation and its mission to educate people, particularly the young, about the flag and the legacy of the man behind it, of its symbolism and meaning for peace, in particular among young people irrespective of ethnicity, creed or gender. It is important that all the young people of Ireland including those who constitute the 'New Irish' are made aware of the flag's message, and are fully included in the process of making it a reality by making a significant and meaningful contribution as active citizens

For just €0.50 per copy, delivered to your school with the Irish Independent, your school can avail of this special magazine combining the history of the Irish Flag, what it means today and how it will continue to be important in the future.
